The Aqualyx Treatment Process at Aqualyx Leeds

At Aqualyx Leeds, we follow a clear, medically guided approach to ensure every client receives safe, effective, and personalised fat reduction treatment. From your first consultation to visible results, our process is designed to be simple, transparent, and stress-free.

Make an Appointment

Book your consultation at a time that suits you. Our friendly team will discuss your goals, assess your concerns, and explain whether Aqualyx fat dissolving injections are the right solution for you.

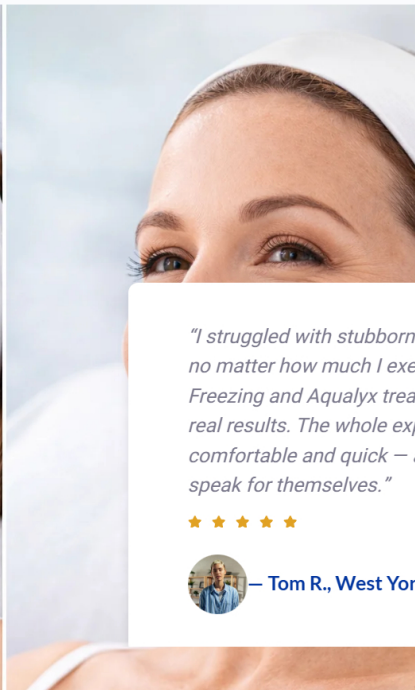

Meet With Our Doctor

During your consultation, a trained practitioner will assess the treatment area, explain the procedure, expected results, and aftercare, and create a personalised treatment plan tailored to your body goals.

Targeted Fat Assessment

We carefully examine stubborn fat areas such as the double chin, abdomen, love handles, or arms to ensure Aqualyx is used precisely where it delivers the best results.

"I struggled with stubborn belly fat for years, no matter how much I exercised. After Fat Freezing and Aqualyx treatments, I finally see real results. The whole experience was comfortable and quick — and the results speak for themselves."
